Dear William,

This letter is to confirm that your company based in Indonesia has a trading account with Blackwoods in Australia. As an account customer, you have access to the full range of our products to resell into Indonesia. You also have the full support of our technical expertise in core category ranges. These include but not limited to Safety, Welding, Abrasives, Fasteners, PPE, Hand and Cutting Tools and our lifting and rigging products.

Please feel free to share this with any of your end user customers as a indication of our support to your company to resell our products to them.

Regards,

Darren Jones

Export Manager
